ABOUT CITY “TBILISI”

Tbilisi formerly known as Tiflis is the capital and the largest city of Georgia. Its cobblestoned old town reflects a long, complicated history, with periods under Persian and Russian rule. Its diverse architecture encompasses Eastern Orthodox churches, ornate art nouveau buildings and Soviet Modernist structures. Tbilisi is known for its distinctive architecture.

Tbilisi is one of the safest cities in Europe and frequently ranks among the most popular emerging destinations. Tbilisi lying on the banks of the Kura River with a population of roughly 1.5 million inhabitants. Located on the south-eastern edge of Europe, Tbilisi's proximity to lucrative east-west trade routes often made the city a point of contention between various rival empires throughout history and the city's location to this day ensures its position as an important transit route for global energy and trade projects.

Tbilisi being the capital of Georgia is also the largest city in the country with a population of nearly 1.5 million people.
